Prior to joining Pyramid Brokerage Company, Dennis Launer was a Business Strategist. He has the unique ability to find and expose profitable opportunities in real estate, small businesses, and Fortune 500 companies. Dennis works with tenants, buyers and sellers of real estate and businesses. Dennis is skilled at handling all aspects of the transaction including marketing & showing available properties, lease reviews, exclusive listings, term negotiations, and deal structure.

Dennis has been involved with and sold many small businesses and commercial buildings. In 2011, Dennis produced the fifth largest retail lease transaction in Manhattan, expanding a Key Food supermarket which he placed at South Bridge Towers a year earlier. The deal was later recognized by the Real Estate Board of New York as the Retail Deal Which Most Significantly Benefits the Manhattan Retail Market. This is one of the most distinguished awards in Commercial Real Estate which recognizes the most inventive and noteworthy New York City retail transactions.

As a landlord and experienced buyer of property, Dennis offers professional help with your real estate transactions. Since joining Pyramid Brokerage, Dennis's most notable sale and lease transactions in the Hudson Valley Region amount to over $12 million.

In addition to being a NY licensed Real Estate Salesperson, Dennis is also a fully licensed property & casualty insurance broker specializing in commercial business and property insurance products.
