Paris Liston is a knowledgeable real estate salesperson specializing in multi-family and investment properties, with a broad base of experience across all asset types. He is completing his B.S. in Real Estate & Development with a minor in Finance at the University of California, San Diego, where he has developed in-depth expertise in real estate markets, finance, development, and investments. In addition to his academic work, Paris is a Division I rower at UC San Diego.

Previously, Paris worked with a top 1% team in Manhattan at Corcoran, where he gained valuable experience in investment, development, single-family, and multi-family residential real estate. Since joining Pyramid Brokerage, he has been actively involved in the execution of brokerage and investment transactions, leveraging his skills in property, market, financial, and investment analysis to support client needs.

If you have any real estate investment or multi-family needs, don't hesitate to reach out to Paris. Whether you are looking to begin or expand your investment portfolio, sell current assets, or seek guidance in navigating the world of real estate, Paris is ready to assist you in your endeavors.
